DEFENDANT: NICHOLAS GHARFOURIA CASE NUMBER: 2:10-cr-00547-RFB-PAL

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) The defendant shall not possess, have under his control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapons, as defined by Federal, state or local law.
- 2) The defendant shall submit to the search of his person, property, residence, or automobile under his control by the Probation Officer, or any other authorized person under the immediate and personal supervision of the Probation Officer without a search warrant to ensure compliance with all conditions of release.
- 3) The defendant shall participate in and successfully complete a substance abuse treatment and/or cognitive based life skills program, which will include drug/alcohol testing and/or outpatient counseling, as approved and directed by the probation office. The defendant shall refrain from the use and possession of beer, wine, liquor, and other forms of intoxicants while participating in substance abuse treatment. Further, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment, as approved and directed by the probation office based upon his ability to pay.
- 4) The defendant shall not have contact, directly or indirectly, associate with, or be within 100 feet of any codefendant, their residence or business, and if confronted by a co-defendant in a public place, the defendant shall immediately remove himself from the area.
- 5) The defendant shall appear before this Court for a Status Check within 30 days of release of BOP custody to review conditions of supervision.
- *6) You shall be placed on home confinement for a period of 365 days/12 months, to commence immediately following the release from BOP custody. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for medical necessities and court appearances or other activities specifically approved by the probation office and court.

Note: A written copy of the conditions of release was provided to the Defendant by the Probation Officer in open Court at the time of sentencing.
